GENERAL NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

The Strike in the Tribune Office.

New York, June 30—3 A. M.—There is considerable excitement about newspaper offices in regard to the strike at the Tribune office. It is alleged on one hand that the office has a hundred galleys of standing matter, but must succumb at the end of a few days. The Tribune appears with ten pages this morning, with a prominent advertisement for 40 compositors and proof readers. It is only a few minutes late. Tribune officials say no difficulty is apprehended. In the future no union men will be employed. Many printers are in the street, barrooms, etc., but apparently all are good natured.

The Sun says Thomas Rooker, foreman of the Tribune composing room, started for Florida yesterday, having first, it is said, transferred his share of Tribune stock to a nephew. At 8:30 last evening there were 13 men and boys at work at the 82 frames in the Tribune composing room, and a solitary youth sat in the proof room comparing copy and reading proof at the same time. Ordinarily eight men are required for the work. It was rumored yesterday that Jay Gould had sold his Tribune stock, and the retrenchment proceedings of the trustees on Wednesday last were forced by the retirement of the Tribune's financial agent. It is also said that Whitelaw Reid's contract as editor will expire on the 16th of November, and he moved the reduction in order to get another engagement.

Tweed will Make another Statement.

New York, June 30.—The World says Tweed declined to see reporters yesterday, but it was ascertained from other sources that he intends to publish his version of the negotiations for his release, accompanied by facts and data in reference to former transactions which will be interesting to the public.

Letter Carriers' Pay.

New York, June 30.—The World's Washington special says the postoffice department intends to recommend to Congress a restoration of the pay of letter carriers and possibly an increase. The department is authorized on and after to-morrow if the revenue of the service is not sufficient to draw upon the treasury for nearly $3,000,000 to supply deficiencies in the revenue for the entire incoming fiscal year, and a portion of this amount may be used yet to restore carriers' pay. Under the new law the department is required to make careful inquiry into the rates of compensation of clerks in the postoffices with a view to a more equitable adjustment and reduction thereof.

Cheating the Law.

Cincinnati, June 29.—John Gartner, who murdered his wife yesterday afternoon in a fit of jealousy, hung himself this afternoon in the county jail, where confined.

A Splendid Ship.

New York, June 29.—The new clipper ship Alfred D. Snow came to loading berth of the Pacific coast line to-day, and attracted much attention. This ship is of the latest improved model of Maine shipyards, and fully justifies all the encomiums bestowed upon her owners. She is 240 feet long, 42 feet 3 inches breadth of beam and 29 feet depth of hold, and measures 2,075 tons. Yet though of this great size she looks more like a yacht than a ship capable of carrying 3,000 tons of grain, and this is owing to her beautiful symmetry of model and the exact proportions of every line. She is built of the very best material, and has the highest class in all different Lloyds. Such ships as these constantly being constructed in our Eastern shipyards does not speak the hard times complained of by our shipowners.

American Tract Society.

Boston, June 29.—The American Tract Society elected as president Wm. C. Chapin. The treasurer's report says the receipts of the past year from legacies, donations and royalties have been greater than the previous year.

Butter Exports.

New York, June 30.—The steamship Anchoria to-day takes out 52,070 packages of butter, the largest shipment ever made to Great Britain from this country in one vessel.

Money and Stocks.

New York, June 30.—Silver bars 123; greenbacks, 118 gold; silver coin, ¾ discount; gold closed at 5½; money 2.

Fleeing from the Draft.

Philadelphia, June 30.—Eight hundred Mennonites arrived last night from Russia, emigrating to escape conscription.

Freights Reduced.

Chicago, June 30.—The general freight agents on the trunk lines reduced rates east to-day five to ten cents per hundred pounds.

Wagner Coming.

New York, June 30.—The World says authoritatively that Wagner will come to America if the matter of price can be agreed on. This is the whole difficulty.

Married and Robbed.

New York, July 1.—The Times says: Hon. Ginery Twichell was married at Ithaca Thursday to Mrs. Vinal, sister of ex-Postmaster General Burt, of Boston. The Boston Advertiser says his valise containing jewelry and railroad passes to California, where he intended to take the honeymoon, was stolen before he left Boston.

The President's Policy Discussed.

The Herald's editorial says: The Iowa Republican convention refused to approve the president's policy. Cameron politicians in Pennsylvania threaten to hand the state over to the Democrats this fall. The principal New Jersey Republican politicians have united in offering a complimentary to ex Secretary Robeson, who is known to oppose the president's policy, and among the prominent names who join in this demonstration, said to have been made for the purpose of making Robeson a candidate for governor, we miss only those of ex-Senator Frelinghuysen, William Walter Phillips and Kinney. All reports state that there is great bitterness against the president among leading Republicans in New York, and the tone of their presses show this to be true. Even in Ohio there are rumors of a good deal of opposition and lukewarmness. We think it not improbable New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and possibly even Ohio will cast Democratic majorities this fall. Such result will say nothing against the president's policy except as Republican malcontents may help to bring it about. The president, honestly striving to serve the country, has the people on his side, who will protect him from annoyance and embarrassment from Bourbons of either side.

Strong Banks.

The Sun says editorially: Since the Bank of Commerce reduced its capital from $10,000,000 to $5,000,000, returning to its supporters one-half of their shares in cash, there is no single banking institution in this city of their individual wealth as the Bank of Nevada, of California, and they are backed up by leading bankers and politicians of California. With the stupendous wealth of the bonanza mines behind it it is destined to play no unimportant part in the financial and political history of California during the next few years. California leads the world in big trees, big fruit, big vegetables, and from present appearances we may soon add big banks. New York must take a back seat.

Still Harping on my Daughter.

The Sun has copious extracts from an article by J. S. Black, in the North American Review for July, in hostility to the electoral commission.

Opposition to Hilton.

New York, June 30.—A committee of Jews appointed by some leading Jewish houses of New York, have visited Staten island to find a suitable site upon which to build a large hotel.

New York Custom House Matters.

New York, June 30.—The committee on custom house reduction, appointed by Collector Arthur, will submit two lists. One of them is a list of men of the greatest ability and importance in their divisions; another of men not ranking so high, but men whose loss would be severely felt. The commission think that the reductions must be considerably less than Jay's commission recommended or a great detriment to public service and delay to business will follow.

Civil Service Crosses.

New York, June 30.—At the custom house this morning many clerks and others showed uneasiness. There are expected to be about 170 removals to day out of the collector's department. One hundred clerks and storekeepers will be dismissed, also 60 inspectors, and 10 night inspectors. A deputy surveyor had received notice that his services would not be required after July 1st.

Officials Dismissed.

New York, June 30.—About 170 men were discharged from the custom house this afternoon. One hundred were clerks and about 60 inspectors, the remainder night watchmen and supernumeraries.

Wall Street Doings.

Monday next the semi annual payments of interest and dividends will be commenced by financial institutions. The first business day of July is investors' day in Wall street, and next Monday will witness a large delegation of capitalists from this city and elsewhere collecting their dividends. The amount to be paid out will probably reach $80,000,000.

Yale-Harvard Race—Harvard Wins.

Springfield, Mass., 10:40 A. M., June 30.—Yale and Harvard boat crews just started. At the end of the first mile Harvard was first; second mile Harvard was a length and a half ahead; at end of third mile Harvard was still a length and a half ahead. Race won by Harvard by two lengths. Time, 24 minutes 4 seconds.

Obeying the Order.

Wilkesbarre, June 30.—In accordance with the civil service requirements E. H. Chase, collector of internal revenue, and Douglas Smith, postmaster at Wilkesbarre, have resigned as chairman and secretary of the Republican county committee.

Coal Breaker Burned.

Watsonville, Pa., June 30.—The coal breaker at Forestville, near this place, owned by Whitaker & Co., of Philadelphia, was burned this morning. It was valued at $60,000.

Pleased with his Trip.

New York, June 30.—President Hayes and party arrived here this morning on the steamer Providence, and were transferred to the depot of the Pennsylvania railroad at Jersey City in time to connect with the limited express for Washington. The president expressed himself very much pleased with his trip.

Lynched.

Hickman, Ky., June 30.—Jarvis Anderson, a supposed member of a gang of thieves, was taken from jail last night and shot to death.

Suicide.

Columbus, June 30.—Jacob Whitzel, life prisoner in the penitentiary, committed suicide by hanging himself in the cellar of the prison this morning.

The Flag of Safety.

New York, June 30.—Six Russian vessels here have been transferred to American owners on account of apprehensions of Turkish men-of-war.

Bank Closed.

Philadelphia, June 30.—The Twenty-second Ward Bank, a state institution, closed its doors to day, and will make final settlement with its depositors and stockholders. The depositors will be paid in full, and stockholders will receive about 80 per cent. The latter have already received four dividends of 3 per cent. each since the organization in 1871. The cause of failure is inability to cope with national banks.

The Erie Troubles.

New York, June 30.—No trouble of any kind has as yet been experienced along the line of the Erie railroad in consequence of the reduction of wages and none expected.

Buffalo, June 30.—In anticipation of trouble in consequence of the recent reduction of wages on the New York Central road, the 54th and 72d regiments have been placed under arms at Rochester in readiness to respond to any call that may be made. Plenty of men are ready to fill all vacancies that may occur and the company will not take back any men who go out. This time the engineers and brakemen are the principal movers in the matter; the conductors refusing to countenance any action that may lead to violence. The company will put down any demonstration, even should it be found necessary to sacrifice life to do it. Last evening two truck loads of ammunition were forwarded to Rochester for the use of the troops.

Wells and Anderson Indicted.

Chicago, June 30.—The Times' New Orleans special says Wells and Anderson of the Louisiana returning board, have been indicted for larceny in having made away with certain returns and documents pertaining to the election of 1876, and for having published false records with intent to defraud. The penalty is imprisonment for 14 years.

Packard's Attempted Assassin.

New Orleans, June 30.—Information has been filed against Weldon for shooting with intent to kill Mr. Packard February last. It is stated Nicholls will make a requisition on the Governor of Pennsylvania for Weldon's return.

Charleston Election.

New York, June 30.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Three prominent customs collectors, Worthington of Charleston, ex-Collector Dunn and Internal Revenue Collector Broyton; of California, say the Republicans ran no ticket at the recent special election in Charleston county, because, with the experience of the Orangeburg election fresh in their minds, they were convinced if they should carry the county the Democrats would count them out. In Orangeburg county, at the special election for member of the legislature, a Republican competitor was counted by throwing out three precincts in a palpably unlawful manner. Republicans in Charleston nominated a compromise ticket on which they put ten leading men, who were Democrats, and only seven of their own party. All the Democrats declined. Afterwards the Democratic convention made up a ticket of 14 white Democrats and three colored men. The Republicans then gave up all action, and allowed the election to go by default. It appears that Bowen, who runs the Republican party in Charleston county, found nobody willing to contribute money to make the campaign, and concluded the best course was to let the Democrats have their own way. The negroes, as a rule, didn't vote at all. Dunn says the Democratic delegation elected is a good one, a number being Conservative men, who will counterbalance the extreme Bourbons from the up-country, who shaped to a great extent the legislation of last year.

EX-PRESIDENT GRANT IN ENGLAND.

A Press Dinner.

New York, June 30.—A special from London says Grant attended a dinner given him last evening at Grosvenor hotel by personal friends belonging to the American press. The company numbered forty, consisting chiefly of distinguished journalists of London and press authors. There were no speeches the dinner being a strictly social and private affair and completely successful. Among the guests were Pierrepont, Senator Conkling, Mr. Capell, Consul Botian Greenwood Boyce, Sir Joseph Fabrer, Justice McCarthy, Frank H. Hill, editor Daily News, Mr. McDonald of the Times, Macmillan of Macmillan's Magazine, George Augustus Sala, Edmund Yates, Lucius Fairchild, United States Consul at Liverpool, Mr. Polson, M. P., Dr. Beimetor, Charles G. Leland, James Norman Lockyer, editor of Nature, Edward Decey, editor of the Observer, Mr. Guinto and others. Grant expressed himself as delighted with his visit to England and stated he would go to Paris next.

Gen. Grant's Tour.

Gen. Grant intends to leave England immediately after the 4th of July, and will go to Belgium, Switzerland, Norway, Sweden and Russia in the order named. On his return from Russia he will spend some time in Paris.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

The Cross of St. George.

Bucharest, June 29. Grand Duke Nicholas received the grand cross of St. George of the second class for the passage of the Danube, his son the military cross and Gen. Nepokoitschitzky, chief of staff, the grand cross of St. George of the third class.

Czar's Residence.

The emperor has taken up his residence at Drajo, near Turna Magarelli.

After Russian Frigates.

Vienna, June 29.—Admiral Sussin Pasha is cruising in Morean and Iolian waters with four ironclads watching for a chance of attacking two Russian frigates.

Peace Talk.

Berlin, June 29.—It is reported from Constantinople that since the Russians crossed the Danube the sultan's intimate advisers have more than ever urged him to enter into negotiations with the czar as soon as the Turks have suffered a serious defeat.

Austria and Greece.

Athens, June 29.—Austria approves the course taken by the Greek government in detaining Turkish arms at Corfu. It is proposed that the Austrian steamer be allowed to take them to some neutral port. This Greece will agree to, provided the Austrian consul gives a written guarantee as to their destination.

Marching on Silistria.

Bucharest, June 29.—The Russian forces at Hirsova, reported to be marching on Silistria, are said to be within forty kilometres of that fortress. The Turks are apparently concentrating their troops in the principal forts where they will soon be attacked. Everything is reported quiet to-day on the Danube. It is ascertained now that the principal crossing west of Giurgevo was at Petroceni and Parapan just below Simnitza where the Russians crossed on a large number of rafts and small boats, until a position was secured on the south bank. This accounts for the comparatively small loss suffered by the Russian troops as the passage was effected in small detachments who were scattered on the river and advanced towards the opposite bank after the manner of skirmishers so as to render the enemy's fire less effective.

The Russians have also crossed at Turna Maragelli and have joined the Grand Duke Nicholas at Sistova. The Russian commissariat telegraphed to hurry up supplies for the army, representing that the country on the other side of the river is entirely destitute and saying there are fears of a famine in Bulgaria.

How the Danube was Crossed.

London, June 29.—The following account of the crossing of the Danube is from a correspondent who was an eye-witness:

> With the darkness, Gen. Dragomiroff began. His first work was to plant in made emplacements a row of field guns all along the edge of the flats to sweep the opposite banks. This was while the infantry was being marched over the flats to the cover of the willows. The darkness and obstructions were so great that all was not ready until the first glimmer of dawn. There was no bridge but a number of river boats capable of holding from 15 to 20 men each. These were dragged on carriages through the mud and launched in the darkness. The boats put off singly rowing across for a little cove, and later, a little steam tug was brought into requisition. The Turks immediately opened a smart fire both on the boats and the troops who were waiting to cross. The leading boat contained Major General Yolchine. The Turkish riflemen were in a position about 50 yards from the shore. He landed his handful of men and bade them lie down in the mud, then opened a skirmishing fire to cover the landing boats, that followed one by one. These landed their freights, who followed the example of the first boat, and at length enough had accumulated. Among them was Gen. Skobaloff and his son. Gen. Zolchine bade his men fix bayonets, stand up and follow their officers. There was a rush and a cheer. The Turks fired an effective volley, but did not await. Gen. Zolchine's skirmish followed them some distance up the slope, but for a time could not press on far from their base. Meanwhile Russian guns from across the river, and Turkish artillery were firing briskly. Turkish shells kept falling in the water, whistling through the willows and bursting among the columns on the flat. One shell from Mountain gun fell into a boat containing two guns, their gunners and the commandant of the battery. The boat was swamped and all on board perished. This was the only serious casualty in crossing, but many Russian soldiers were falling on both sides of the river. The Turkish gunners clung to their guns with wonderful staunchness amid clouds of dust thrown up by shells, which burst around them. A Turkish monitor had been hemmed in by a cordon of torpedoes within the channel south of the island opposite Vardin, and the Russian battery on the Roumanian side shelled her.
>
> After their first repulse from the landing place, the Turks rallied and concentrated on the upper slopes in front of their battery, and then came down on the pickets of the Zolchine's brigade, and made some headway, but only for a moment. Soon after noon the Russian infantry had crossed the heights. A Turkish infantry detachment tried to work around and down upon Sistova, but was thwarted by intercepting skirmish forces. Loss estimated at 1,000. Two bridges will be laid at Simnitza which will be the main thoroughfare for the Russian army. A thousand men will march in the column now crossing.

The Turkish Loan.

New York, June 30.—The Times' London special says: Comptoir Descompte, a French banking association, rivaling in many respects the Credit Foncier or Bank of France itself, advanced nearly all of the $10,000,000 of the Turkish loan which has been placed in Paris. The Comptoir Descompte has been secured by jewels from the Shrine at Mecca.

The Dissension in the British Cabinet.

The disagreement in the British cabinet is still the subject of much comment among the outer party in England. Lord Beaconsfield is the only one of the ministers who is positively in favor of immediate action on the part of the government. Her Majesty's confidential advisers do not get on amicably in their political relations and resignations of at least two of her ministers may be looked for at any moment.

Moving on Shumla.

London, June 30.—A correspondent at Ibrail telegraphs that it is the intention of Gen. Zimmerman to move on rapidly as possible to Shumla. Shumla is fortified by nine large earthworks encircling the town, and is reported to be incapable of being taken by storm. It is armed by 100 guns, including 40 Krupps. In the place there are encamped 51,000 infantry, 5,000 horse and 22 field batteries, under command of Achmid Pasha.

Austria will Occupy Bosnia.

The occupation of Bosnia by Austria may be considered as a near event. Austria, however, may wait till she hears how the war tends to shape materials for the future. Then she may come forward [illegible]. She cares nothing for the Turks, she cares for the territory they own, and that there are certain arrangements which she could not allow. In this respect she has assumed the same attitude toward the Danubian provinces that England has toward Europe.

Servia Arming.

Servia has ordered at Paris accoutrements for 5,000 men, to be delivered in three weeks.

Battle at Sistova.

New York, June 30.—The Herald's cable reports a great battle raging at Sistova. Troops from Rustchuk have hastened to support the Turks who retreated from Sistova and detachments from Shumla and Razerd are believed to be making forced marches to the scene of conflict.

Still Bombarding Rustchuk.

The bombardment of Rustchuk continues. The town is becoming untenable. The foreign consuls, the hospital, staffs and the ambulance corps have removed to Varna. This indicates the abandonment of the line of the Danube by the Turks, and their retirement to that of the Balkans.

Batoum Assaulted.

New York, July 1.—A telegram from Trebizonde says the Turks, on Friday, assaulted and carried the Russian positions at Batoum, achieving a great victory. The Russians retreated after a severe battle and great loss of men.

The Fight at Batoum.

Constantinople, June 30.—Dervish Pasha telegraphs from Batoum, under date of Friday, as follows:

> After the recent engagement the Russians removed their guns from Sampo and heights, and withdrew their left wing to Kossonban. To-day a detached column of the Turkish right wing attacked the Russians and drove them back to their old entrenchments at Djestigair.

When Dervish Pasha telegraphed the fighting still continued, but Sampo and Kossenban heights were both in his hands.

Russian Retreat.

A Russian official dispatch says after the Russians were driven from their foremost position near Zewin, on Monday, they retired at night to their previous lines to escape the Turkish fire. The Russian troops fought with great heroism and suffered considerable losses, because the enemy were numerically superior. Six officers were killed and 24 wounded. Eight hundred and fifty privates were placed hors du combat.

Reign of Terror.

A letter from Erzeroum says the Turks collected at Van for the defense of the country have struck terror in the whole district. The streets of the town itself re-echo their violence and disorders. The American missionaries have taken refuge upon a small pleasure boat on the lake. They float about during the day and sleep in some secluded place during the night. Another letter gives an account of outrages and plunder by Kurds throughout Armenia which the authorities are unable or unwilling to prevent.

Warm Times all along the Line.

London, June 30.—Telegrams from various points on the Danube give particulars of frightful bombardments along the river. At Rustchuk the German consulate was destroyed by 24 shells, the French by 3 and the Austrian consulate was riddled. The military hospital in the Jews' quarter received 62 shells. They fell everywhere and no spot can be considered safe. Up to Wednesday the Turks had thrown 2,000 to 3,000 shell into Giurgevo. However, though streets here and there are ploughed up and house are bored through, not more than one houses in 20 or 30 is seriously injured. At Oltenitza Gen. Erhenworth was shot through the shoulder by a Turkish sharpshooter from the other side of the Danube.

A dispatch from Vienna says it is announced a battle has been raging to-day below Sistova.

A Battery Unmasked.

London, June 30.—An Oltenitza dispatch says of Wednesday morning's operations: There has been a successful attempt to unmask the Turkish batteries by launching a fleet of eight boats loaded with dummy soldiers. When the fleet reached mid stream it drew fire from thousands of rifles and many cannon upon itself and the Russian earthworks.

Duke and Czar's Headquarters.

Bucharest, June 30.—The Czar has taken up his quarters at a farm house called the Dracia, near Turna Magurelli. The headquarters of Grand Duke Nicholas have been transferred to Sistova.

General War Notes.

A special from Pera says it is reported the Russians are leaving Batoum. No definite intelligence, however, is obtained.

A dispatch dated Shumla, Thursday, states that a forward movement of the Turks will immediately take place to meet the Russians who have crossed the Danube.

It is said that a Turkish gunboat has broken the bridge at Ibrail.

Nikopolis, June 29.—The Russians attempted to cross the river here on Thursday in fifty lighters. Ten of the lighters were sunk by shells and the attempt failed. The slaughter was frightful.

Situation in Montenegro.

Reports from Montenegro continue conflicting, but the best information leads to the belief that the success of Suleiman and Ali Saib has been complete. The Turks place their entire losses at two thousand killed and wounded, which is probably an under estimate, but hardly so far out of the way as the Montenegrins claim of over ten thousand Turks killed. The fighting forces of the Montenegrins are now chiefly wedged in between the valley of Setta and the Austrian frontier, whilst Suleiman Pasha and Saib Pasha are awaiting the advance of Mehemet Ali among the Moratcha to clear the eastern portion of the country and intercept flight either across the valley or down the Moratcha into the Kuschi mountains.

A telegram via Ragusa from Sclavonic sources claims the defeat of Mehemet Ali with great slaughter, but it is unconfirmed and probably untrue.

The Turkish forces now in Montenegro or on its confines number some 60,000 men, nearly half the total population of the principality.

The Crisis Passed.

London, July 1.—The long expected crisis which Europe has been awaiting has virtually passed without a struggle. The Russians have left in force near Hirzova, and all their troops between Kalarash and Ismail, some 30,000, have, by this time, passed from the northern to the southern bank of the Danube and driven the Turks to their second line of defense at Kustendji and the Roman walls. These present no obstacle worth speaking of. It is otherwise with Kustendji itself. Here there have been some heavy guns mounted, but all told, there are not more than 10,000 men at Kustendji, including posts and forces driven in from the banks of the Danube. We may soon expect to hear of the investment of Kustendji.

The Russian center crossed at Simnitza easily and with trifling loss according to latest dispatches, although no events since Thursday morning have been permitted to come through the Russian lines. General Miloutine, Russian war minister, sends a telegram dated Simnitza, June 30th, about operations in Asia Minor, but vouchsafes no word concerning Russian progress at the point which is now the focus of the world's gaze. This leads to the belief that the Russians are encountering some unexpected obstacle, and their success in establishing themselves south of the Danube is not as complete as at first represented. The Russians heretofore have had wonderful success in silencing correspondents when any movement was in preparation or progress, only permitting it to be reported when fully effected and the result secure, so that any movement may bring a fresh bulletin of the Czar announcing a great victory or successful strategic movement. Assuming that the crossing near Simnitza is as successful as that on the left wing, we may expect [illegible] at other points by which the Turkish Rustchuk and Varna line will be threatened east and west, by at least 150,000 men. This will force the Turks to turn and face the Danube, so that Shumla forms the third center, whilst the left rests on Osman Bazar and the right on Bazar Djik. The advance of the Russo-Roumanian right wing will paralyze Widdin, and thus leave the center of Bulgaria practically denuded of troops in the face of another 80,000 which the Russians can pour across at Turna Magerilli.

Back to the Balkans.

A French military critic, writing before events at Simnitza were known, said:

> No matter how serious in appearance the private attacks the Russians may direct against either flank; no matter what line of operations they may choose for their forward movement after passing the Danube it is certain that towards the center of the main body of their army they will act; the success of this maneuver would cut the Turkish line of defense in two and place the whole of Bulgaria up to the Balkans at the discretion of the Russians.

The Situation in Asia Minor.

As regards the general position of the Turks in Asia Minor, there can be but little doubt that it has improved. The slowness of the Russian advance has not only created confidence, but given time for making preparations, in consequence of which it has been resolved to defend a junction of the roads from Kars and Bayazid, in the Arxes valley. For this purpose the transverse ridge west of Zewin, which is crossed by both roads from Kars over the Soghanlu has been occupied by the Turkish main force and strengthened by entrenchment, while at Delibaba, where the roads from Bayazid come down into the Arxes valley, the Turkish right wing has taken a position to prevent the Russians from debouching out of the pass. The two positions are near enough to support each other in case of need, while there is a small reserve at Kuprukoi, which may be used to assist either column or eventually serve as a rallying point should the Russian center succeed in the attempt to storm the northern end of the Soghanlu defile and gain a footing on the plateau of Olti and Bardoisch or should prove true that a strong Russian force has succeeded in reaching Khorasson, Mukhtar Pasha will probably concentrate his forces between Kuprikoi and Hassan Kaleh. Preparations are making in contingency of his inability to maintain ground there to defend the position of Devobahun in front of Erzeroum, which is likewise strengthened with earthworks. It seems evident that the Turks had decidedly the best of recent fighting both at Delibaba and Zewin. At the latter place the brunt of the defense fell on the command of Chefket Pasha, notorious for participation in the Bulgarian massacres, and reports say that he greatly distinguished himself and contributed largely to the Turkish success by his personal prowess.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Apology Offered.

Washington, June 29.—The Spanish government assures Mr. Evarts that Spain will make all honorable amends for the seizure and detention of the American schooner Rizpah, and imprisonment of Capt. Mr. Evarts will hand in his bill of damages against Spain when he receives Capt. Dunham's sworn statement.

The Spanish Insult.

THE IDAHO INDIAN WAR.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.]

Attitude of the Montana Indians.

New York, June 30.—Jas O'Connor, vicar apostle of the church of Nebraska, communicates to the Herald under date of Deer Lodge, M. T., June 20th, as follows:

> I spent last Saturday and Sunday at the Flathead mission of St. Ignatius, Missoula county, West Montana. I met there I. A. R. Lee, chief of the Flatheads on Jako reservation; Michael, chief of the Pen d'Oreilles, chief of the Coutneyas and others. Neither they nor their people anticipated the Indian troubles in Idaho, and they expressed unfeigned surprise at the news of the massacre brought to the mission on Sunday morning by a Flathead from the Bitter Root valley. Up to Saturday the Blackfeet had not been asked to co operate with the Nez Perces, and the fathers at St. Ignatius have no apprehension that, with the exception of some hot-headed young braves, these Indians nor those at any of their missions in Montana, Idaho or Oregon will be induced to go in with the hostiles. Some families have come in from Bitter valley, a little village of Missoula. The people between Missoula and Deer Lodge are a good deal excited, but are in more dread of Blackfeet who are located to the north within a few day's ride of the stage route, than of Nez Perces.

Idaho Indian War.

New York, June 30.—A dispatch from Lewiston, Idaho, dated the 28th, says a man just in from the front says Howard has driven Joseph from Horse Shoe Bend into a ridge and he was to have opened fire last night.

The Boise Troops.

San Francisco, June 30.—A press dispatch from Boise City says a small force on Weiser composed of Capt. Bendier's command of 45 men and 30 Idaho volunteers under Capt. Robbins, cannot move northward to any purpose until the arrival of troops expected from the south.

The Indians' Stronghold.

The position of the Indians, which is on the south side of Salmon river, is the strongest and most favorable for their mode of warfare that could be imagined. It is full of natural obstacles to the approach of troops, and affords ample scope to the Indians to remain and fight or retreat, as they may see fit. The troops may cross the river under cover of artillery, but when across they will have steep mountains to climb and rocky canyons to cross to get at the Indians. Without sufficient force from this side to co operate with Gen. Howard, it is difficult to see how he can hold the Indians to an engagement or do anything effectual against them. It is now believed here that the hostiles will come this way, but there is no adequate force yet here to prevent them if they should so determine.

Asking for Arms.

The following petition will explain itself:

> MOUNT IDAHO, I. T., June 25, 1877.
>
> H. D. Sanborn, Lewiston, I. T.—DEAR SIR: We, the undersigned citizens, heads of families, living on Camas Prairie, in the vicinity of Mount Idaho, having heard that the citizens of Portland had authorized you to furnish the citizens who were destitute of arms, with guns for their protection, we would ask you to consider our situation. We with our families are gathered in and near the temporary fort at Mount Idaho, liable to attack from the Indians at any time, and we are almost defenseless for the want of arms and ammunition. We have guarded our families here since the outbreak with a very few old rifles and shotguns, but most of us have not even that much for defense. All the best guns are out with the scouts. We can get no arms from government unless we volunteer and go out, leaving our families. We appeal to you for help in this way, if in your power do this for the defenseless, and for the above request we will ever pray.

Indian Pow-wow.

On the 27th ult., a meeting was held at the court house in Walla Walla between the citizens of that place and the Indians on Umatilla Reservation, under Maj. Connoyer, Indian agent. Major Connoyer brought about [illegible]0 of the principal Indians from that reservation including the following chiefs: Homily, chief of the Walla Wallas; Howlish Wampo, chief of Cayuses; Jesse, of Nez Perces; Winum-Snoot, chief of the Umatillas; Kalietan and others. The meeting was largely attended, the court house being crowded to repletion. The meeting was called to order by Mayor McAuliff, who stated briefly the object for which it had been called. He said it was for the purpose of talking the matter over and giving mutual assurances of amity and good feeling. He said the Indians have come all the way from the reservation with Maj. Connoyer, solely for the purpose of assuring the whites of their friendship. John McBean acted as interpreter.

Maj. Connoyer addressed the meeting at some length.

Chief Homily spoke next. He said:

> I come to show my true heart to you. I have no hard feelings toward anybody. I have no friends or brothers who need to work. I have fields on the reservation. I have sweat to make them. I have as much right to protect them as you have. My friends, I want to show my heart once more to you. We respect your homes here. I hope you will respect my place too.

Howlish Wampo spoke next. He was received with cheers:

> My friends, I am here to talk to the people of Portland and you. I hear the people of Lagrande and Union are greatly excited. The Indians are excited too. I made trips to buffalo country and returned a few days ago. My people were waiting for me. Had a big council, and made feast when I got back, three or four days after the news of the fight. All my people was laughing and having good time when the news came of the trouble. Since news came we seem afraid of each other. It is a bad thing and I do not like to see it. I told many white people that I hoped you would be quiet toward us. After the agent gave us the news my people all remained quiet on the reservation. I tell the whites to have a strong heart and love one another. I always took the part of the whites, and will do so now. It is my duty to love you. I come over to show my heart toward you. I love all the people in the world. I used to live here before the whites and am glad to see the whites prosperous. My heart is open to you. I have only one heart and one tongue. I have never had two tongues. I have no young men to send to Joseph. The big chief at Washington looks over all of us. None of my people want to do anything against the whites. In old times I used to stand between the Indians and the whites. When I told the whites years ago that I had a good tongue, I always kept my word.

Chief Jesse, of the Nez Perces, said:

> Look at me! I am half Cayuse and half Nez Perces. When I left everything was smooth. When the blood was spilled over here my people took Spaulding and saved him. From that day I never have taken arms against the whites. When [illegible] to be fighting between the whites and [illegible] young men to stay at home. A great many of our old people have children and houses like whites. If you arrest an Indian try him. If he is a hostile, punish him.

Chief Winum Snoot said:

> We are altogether in this house to-night, face to face. If I could I would cut my body and show you my heart. If you could see it you would see all good works. I have been on the reservation 17 years. I love all the whites. I am true in many words to you. I do not want to join the hostile Indians. I will never go and join them. Our Nez Perces friends have done wrong in going to war. I love my wife and children the same as the whites.

Speeches were made by Cut-mouth John, Quot-tim-ne, Gov. Stevens, Kati-et-an, Young Chief, and other sub-chiefs, all expressing warmest feelings of friendship to whites.

Speeches were made by H. D. Sanborn, Esq., N. T. Caton, Esq., W. G. Langford, Esq., F. B. Johnson, Esq., and other gentlemen. During the talk, harmony and the best feeling prevailed.

General Howard.

The following testimonial to Gen. Howard by the authorities of Lewiston is a sufficient answer to assertions that the people there are exasperated at him and hold him responsible for the outbreak:

> LEWISTON, June 20, 1877.
>
> To General O. O. Howard—Information coming to our ears to day through politeness of S. C Hale, Esq., in relation to a rumor of personal violence and an unwarranted attack upon your personal character, we feel it our imperative duty to contradict not only the statement, but any and all foundation for any such report, and to the contrary to assure you that such is not expressive of the sentiment and feeling of this community in the least degree. There may be and undoubtedly are in our midst growlers who will not be pleased with any proceedings in the present emergency, however well they may or might have been arranged, but of these we say nothing and care less. They are not dangerous: but by far the majority, and we may say the whole of this community, are of the opinion that all proper measures have been adopted and carried out with and by your judgment and discretion, and have been for the best interests possible of the public at large. For your prompt and energetic action we shall, as in duty bound, be ever grateful, and any aid and assistance which is in our power, municipal or private is ever heartily, cheerfully extended to you, both in your military career and private character. Rest assured that this is the genuine expression of the sentiment of the people of Lewiston. Yours in haste,

Cause of the Outbreak.

MOUNT IDAHO, June 22, 1877.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In the MORNING OREGONIAN of June 18th, I find an article which purports to give the cause of the Indian massacre, which occurred here and on Salmon river at about the same time, (viz, Thursday afternoon and night, 14th ult.)

The article reflects severely on the dead as well as the living, and is incorrect in what purports to be the cause of the outbreak.

In justice to the community, I desire to call your attention to the facts in the most cordial manner, believing as I do that you would not knowingly do us injustice, or endeavor to saddle on the innocent people the charge that they had in any way caused or instigated the present Indian war.

It is to the public press that we look for aid and sympathy, as the press, in a great measure, moulds the minds of the people, and through that source we expect the public to become informed, and the authorities hear and [illegible] all the persons murdered, and they were among our best citizens. Never have I heard any charge made against them of wrongful acts towards the Indians. But on the contrary, there had existed good feeling between them. Ben. Norton had not made any horse trade with them or had any trouble or seen any Indians for several days. He was fleeing from his home with his family in the night when they were attacked, himself and two others killed, and others wounded.

I will in a few words give you what I consider a true statement of the Indian outbreak.

The Indian department had ordered that Joseph's and other roving bands of the Nez Perces should be put on their reservation, and as I learn the military authorities were directed to aid should they be required.

About the first of May General Howard arrived at Fort Lapwai. The Indians were called together in council by the agent and General Howard, who told them what they came to do; and they consented and agreed to go upon the reservation, and locations were selected for them. It was generally understood by the citizens that the Indians should have till the 18th or 19th of June to report themselves on the reservation, or they would be moved by force.

Some two weeks before the time expired they began to collect on the prairie, eight miles from here, and close to the settlement, and from their manner and actions the people who lived near their camp became alarmed.

On the 13th I wrote the commanding officer at Fort Lapwai, stating the fears and apprehensions of the settlers. On the afternoon of the 14th the families came pouring into town. We soon heard that four men had been killed at John Day creek on Salmon river that day.

Mr. Lew Day volunteered to go as a messenger to Fort Lapwai for help; left here at 6 P. M.; arrived safely at Norton's house at Cottonwood, and started on; was overtaken by the Indians before he had gone far, and shot in the back. He made his escape back to the house, when Norton with all the people there started in a wagon for Mount Idaho; they had nearly reached a place of safety when they were fired upon. Norton, John Chamberlain and child killed; Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Chamberlain and child, Jo Moore, and Lew Day wounded; Mr. Day has since died. Miss Lin Bowers and Norton's little boy made their escape on the prairie, were found early in the morning by our pickets and brought to town; teams and men went out and brought in the dead and wounded.

During the day we learned that the Indians commenced the massacre at White Bird creek, eight miles away, at about 4 P. M. They killed J. J. Manuel, his wife and child, James Baker, Peter Bertard, Samuel Benedict, August, Harry Mason, French Frank, Mr. Osborn, Victor and others on Salmon river, and H. C. Horton on the prairie. "Thus the war began." No cause or provocation can be assigned to the settlers. They had lived, most of them, here for years. Knew all the Indians well, and were on the most friendly terms with them.

It should be distinctly understood that the trouble grew out of the course pursued by the government, in attempting to put Joseph, of the Wallowa valley, and other renegades, on the reservation, and the Indians commenced the bloody deeds before the troops had arrived.

I am certain Gen. Howard will corroborate the above statement and vindicate the people from all blame.

The people are forted up at Mount Idaho for safety. Horses and cattle have been driven away or killed, and the whole business of the county has been destroyed for years.

I trust you will give us a complete and public vindication, for I assure you I have endeavored to give you the plain facts. I can refer you to friends who reside in your city as to character, &c. Some of them were our neighbors years ago, when we lived in Oregon—Judge Deady, ex Gov. Gibbs, Secretary Chadwick, D. W. Burnside, Captain and Levi Ankeny and Dr. Watkins. LOYAL P. BROWN.

Gen. Howard has been prompt in sending us aid, and is making every effort to chastise the villains. He has here, and on the road from Fort Lapwai, 400 men, and takes the field himself. L. P. B.

Boise City News.

San Francisco, July 1.—A press dispatch from Boise City says: Col. Green arrived this morning from Fort Harney via Baker City, Oregon. The troops ordered this way from the south are now between this place and Winnemucca. Two companies of cavalry will arrive here to-morrow and the rest will soon follow. Another week must elapse before these troops can join Capt. Bendier, who is now at Indian valley on the Weiser, 75 miles from Boise City. From here to Indian valley the roads are practicable for wagons, but from that point to the scene of hostilities on Salmon river, a distance of 100 miles, there are only rough mountain trails over which everything must be carried on pack animals. Scarcity of pack animals will cause some delay in the moving of troops. The want of an appropriation for army purposes is severely felt in this instance and will add to the cost of the expedition. The country between Indian valley and Salmon river is for the most part rough and mountainous and in many places extremely perilous for the passage of troops, requiring them to move slowly and with great caution. The hundred miles of mountain trail to be passed over will consume another week at least. If hostilities continue and the Indians remain where they now are, Col. Green's column will be in time to assist in future engagements, but if the Indians leave their present position or disperse, it is folly to talk of intercepting them.

Indians in this section so far as known are entirely friendly, and no fears are at present entertained of their committing depredations, but no reliance can be placed upon their peaceful disposition. Their course will be governed by the success or failure of the hostiles in the north.

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 2, 1877.

THE INDIAN WAR.

There seems little reason to fear a general Indian outbreak. Trustworthy advices from the several bands whose proximity to the hostiles would increase the danger of a confederated effort, strengthen the confidence that the outbreak will be limited to the Wallowa and Salmon river bands now known to be engaged in it. In Montana, although there are apprehensions of danger, there seems no real ground for it. At a time like the present every movement of Indians is looked upon with suspicion and fear, and their summer migrations, which usually attract no notice at all, are watched with concern and reported in fullest detail. Even their mummeries and incantations, which generally pass unnoticed, are construed at such a time as ominous of hostility. But among all the Indians of the upper Columbia region no serious discontent is known to exist, except among the bands already actually in arms. From the main body of the Nez Perces there is certainly nothing to fear. By the parties in the Palouse, Spokane and Cœur d' Alene region no well-attested act of hostility seems to have been committed, though the murder of one man on Hangman creek is reported. This, however, appears to have been a solitary act of murder without the privity and co-operation of any band. All the parties of Indians in Idaho south of Salmon river, as those on the Weiser and Payette, are known to be friendly, and no danger is now anticipated that they will join the war party. That portion of the territory will be thoroughly protected by companies of [illegible] portion of Washington territory—Whitman, Stevens and Columbia—it is now hoped are in no great danger; and though reports of hostile demonstrations on the part of the Yakimas were received at the Dalles on Thursday and Friday, later information goes to show them unfounded. News from Gen. Howard's forces is now hourly expected. The chances are strong that he will not succeed in bringing the Salmon river murderers to serious engagement, for they have the option of fighting or not, and therefore will scarcely fight unless they get an advantage which will enable them to kill a number of men without special danger to themselves. So rugged is the country and so difficult will be the pursuit, that the affair may not be brought to a termination till winter forces the band out of the mountains.

THE IRRIGATION HUMBUG.

An Olympia paper says that posters from California have been sent to Puget Sound, claiming that notwithstanding the drouth, California is to be converted into a land of verdure and flowers by means of irrigation; and beautiful drawings are furnished showing how it is to be done. Holders of desert lands want to sell badly, and this is a last effort to practice their dupery on the uninitiated. It is so easy to make a beautiful picture, showing how the crystal rills wander with mazy error over the model farm, visiting each plant and feeding flowers worthy of paradise; but in the fancy sketch the land is always a perfect surface, with gentle declivity so the water will flow just where wanted; while in reality, so contrary is the disposition of nature, the ground is rendered uneven by humps and hillocks over which the water obstinately refuses to flow. This irrigation business, except on a small scale for gardens and the like, is the greatest humbug of all things. On paper it is very nice, and perhaps this pretense may enable the land sharks of California to make something out of a class who may be deluded far enough to believe in their scheme. But it will lead to new disappointments. It is not practicable as a general system, however excellent its results on a small scale in particular localities.

THE GRAIN CROP.

During the past week rains have fallen throughout most of the state west of the Cascade range. For spring crops they are timely, and will greatly increase the yield. But in many localities they are likely to prove an injury to fall sown grain, which has attained very rank growth. Correspondence from several counties informs us that in many fields the grain has been thrown down more or less, and can scarcely be expected to rise, unless dry weather ensues immediately. From Washington, Polk and Marion we have information of this character; and no doubt the same is true of other Willamette counties. In Jackson less rain has fallen. In Douglas the hay harvest, which many farmers had begun, is interrupted, and the crop somewhat injured. Rains have not been heavy in any locality. Probably the damage will be smaller than present appearances would indicate. What is lost in winter wheat may be made up by increased yield of fields later sown.

If those who are disposed to complain of the manner in which the board of trade propose to tender a reception to the senatorial committee will reflect a little they will probably see less reason for criticism and objection. Like any other association the board of trade has a right to prepare an entertainment and invite such as it sees fit. But it is not making this an exclusive affair. Over eight hundred invitations have been issued, and as each gentleman may bring ladies, there is likely to be as large a company as can be accommodated. The board of trade does not propose to monopolize the committee. Its action need not prevent any citizen or class of citizens from calling upon the gentlemen of the committee, or tendering them any attention it may be desirable to offer. On Friday, when the communication of "One not Invited" was brought to this office, not half the invitations of the board of trade had [illegible] he has ere this received a notice requesting his attendance. But if he has none he must allow that it is hardly one's right to object or complain because he is not bidden to an entertainment prepared by others.

Special exception is taken by the Tacoma Herald to a remark by the OREGONIAN on the coal fields of Washington Territory. That paper will not allow Puyallup coal to be classed with the coal of Seattle, claims that it is a much superior article and that it will discount Seattle coal in the market. We give this as Tacoma's version; Seattle to hear from.

Again on Saturday, a paper that had no news except what it cribbed from the OREGONIAN, was graceless enough to say that it had "the Indian war news in advance of all the other papers published in this city." It must have been the editor who did the truthful department who went to the war, and no one has been engaged to fill his place.

Latest dispatches seem to indicate that the Turks are practically forced back from the line of the Danube. In that quarter the war does not wear for them a favorable look, but in Asia it is said to be better for them. This last may, however, prove a delusive appearance.

THE SECRET OF IT.

Attempts at discussion and criticism, whose only noticeable feature is intemperate use of words, are usually thought an infallible sign of poverty of understanding. The paper whose columns habitually teem with extravagant denunciation and objurgatory forms of speech, speedily finds its proper level in public estimation. It uses over and over on every occasion its stock of backneyed epithets; the poor parrotry its writers learned years ago in the petty warfare of partisan vexation is repeated in the treatment of every subject, with no attempt, because there is no ability, to diversify it. Such a sheet is usually the advocate of effete political notions. If Democratic, and controlled by a southern editor, its gospel is the resolutions of '98; and its editor sticks to the terms and phrases he was wont to employ in vilifying the abolitionists, and denouncing the defenders of the union. He still talks as glibly of "the whole Radical psalm-singing and hypocritical crew" as he did when trying by these tremendous weapons from the arsenal of vituperation to uphold the rebellion and to stop Sherman's march through Georgia. Fresh from the scene of an armed attempt to destroy the union, he speaks of those who succeeded in defeating the attempt by a prodigious expenditure of money and blood, as "the miserable Radical conspirators against the union of our fathers." The intellectual vigor necessary to supply powerful articles of this description can easily be stimulated by drawing scrap-book from carpet-bag, and making a dip into extracts from old speeches and newspaper essays by Toombs, Stephens, Ben Hill, and their fellow patriots. This is the language, or the echo of the language, of that coterie of great men; it is the political and literary culture of which [illegible] Transferred to other soil there is reason, however, to fear that it will prove exotic, and finally perish. Certainly it can grow and fructify best only in soil specially prepared for it. It is doubtless to be regretted that sweetness like this must sometimes be wasted on the desert air. But it has often been the misfortune of elegant culture to fall upon uncongenial places and evil times.

This habit of powerful composition seems so natural that it overflows constantly into subjects remote from party and politics. Whether treating of the war of the rebellion or the war with the tatterdemalions of Joseph's band, the same flowers of rhetoric are prodigally scattered. In the last case as in the first out comes the scrap-book, and from its precious stores are drawn remarks about "Gen. Howard of freedman's bureau peculation notoriety," "whose specialty is running puritanical Sunday schools and love feasts," and who has for his aid "a blathering fanatical street exhorter;" and much more to the same purpose. Here are originality of thought, elegance of diction and refinement of sentiment to which too many readers in this region have hitherto unfortunately been strangers. So limited have their opportunities been that they don't know what fine writing is, and they may be disposed to pass by all these examples with a contempt like that with which the untutored savage threw away a pearl richer than all his tribe. When this patois of southern partisanship is embellished, as it often is, with gems drawn at random from the dictionary of Latin quotations, the effect is really overpowering. When all the rays of genius are thus brought to a focus and concentrated upon their object, who can abide the effulgence? The fanatical puritans and the psalm-singing radical crew,—degeneres animos and the rest of it,—are put to flight at a dash. And the country rings with the triumph. And garlands are gathered for the brow of fame.

Such is the powerful newspaper. These are the materials, and in this fashion are they used. It takes a robust intellect and peculiar culture. Above all, to make it successful, it is necessary to go into an unenlightened community, believing oneself charged with a mission to give it lessons it never heard before. Then the scrap-book of speeches and of old editorials and the dictionary of quotations and all the results of this species of culture can be produced with finest effect—and one may write himself down a donkey very easily. This is the secret of it, and it doesn't lie very deep after all.

While everybody is condemning the peace policy, so-called, and many are basing their criticisms of the department commander and others on the ground that a man who worships God and says his prayers must be totally unfit to deal with Indians, let us stop to consider whether the Roseburg Plaindealer isn't about right when it says:

> The military arm of the government has no better record in the management of the Indians than the peace policy, if so good. The uprising of the Indians in 1853 in this state was under military rule. In 1855 the Indians left the reservation in Jackson county then under the control of the military, and murdered, burned and plundered the whole country from Yreka, Cal., to this place, and when the commander was first informed of the "outbreak," he could not believe the story.

From H. J. McKusick, superintendent of railway mail service for the Pacific coast, we have a letter in response to the OREGONIAN's complaint about the overland mails. Accompanying the letter are copies of the orders from Washington and from San Francisco relative to the transmission of certain mails by steamer and the balance overland. It appears that the disarrangement was the result of a mistake; but as we have indicated hitherto how it came about it seems unnecessary to print the letter.

NOTICE TO PERSONS INTENDING TO EMIGRATE TO OREGON.

Direct Passage from New York to Portland, Oregon.

LAND DEPARTMENT, O. & C. R. R.,
PORTLAND, June 25, 1877.

THE OREGON STEAMSHIP COMPANY HAS agreed to carry on its iron steamship, now being built at Chester, Pa., by John Roach & Son, upon her completion, on or about the 15th day of January, 1878, steerage passengers from New York to Portland, direct, via the Straits of Magellan, at the extremely low rate of $75.00 currency, board included.

This steamer will be the best, strongest and most comfortably arranged ship ever built in the United States. Speed, 13½ knots. Dimensions: 290 feet in length; 38 feet beam; 23¼ depth of hold; capacity, 2,200 tons; 200 cabin and 500 steerage passengers. The fitting up of the steerage will receive special attention; it will be provided with all modern improvements and its ventilation will be perfect. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, and the fare will be of the best quality. Part of the deck room will be fitted up for refrigerating purposes, with a view to furnish passengers fresh meat during the whole voyage.

The voyage will be made in about sixty days.

To assist persons who desire to emigrate to Oregon, agricultural and other implements will be taken at very low rates.

For persons here who have friends in the Atlantic States wishing to come to Oregon this offers a rare opportunity, as the annoyances and fatigue of the overland route by rail are avoided, and the passage is considerably less.

The Daily Oregonian.

MONDAY MORNING, JULY 2, 1877.

CITY.

[illegible] WEAKENED.—A few days ago a young man whom we will call Bouser for convenience sake, solicited the company of a young lady to the theater. She accepted on the spot. When the evening came the lady sent him a message to the effect that she could not go on account of family affairs. Our hero became greatly incensed thereat. Some gentlemen, in order to play a joke on the young man, informed him that a certain individual had circulated the report that the young lady had refused to accompany him. They worked him up to such a pitch that he sent a challenge to fight the party that he thought had circulated the report. The challenged party through the jokers, responded, naming the White House race track as the place and yesterday morning at 6 o'clock as the time and that derringers would be the kind of weapons to use on the occasion. The parties in the movement had engaged carriages for those who were to engage in the sanguinary contest besides their friends. After the receipt of the acceptance our hero weakened, but was urged by his warmest friends to stand up and "face the music," but he did not yield to their wishes and yesterday was the butt of ridicule among his friends. Being informed that the entire affair was a "put up job," he hastened to apologize, but the joke was out and circulated freely at his expense. He has modified his style materially since and vows never to "blow" as loud in the future.

SCHOOL REGISTER.—We have received the register of the Bishop Scott grammar and divinity school for the academic year of 1877-8. The following is the calendar for the coming year: Sept. 1st Christmas term begins; December 21st to January 3d, recess; January 4th, end of Christmas recess; January 20th, Christmas term ends and Easter term begins; June 4th to 9th, annual examination; June 9th, close of school year. School year which recently closed has been quite prosperous. During the year the whole number of pupils in attendance was 62, classified as follows: Boarding pupils 28, day pupils 34. The pamphlet is a very neat and handsome specimen of the typographical art. The work was executed at the book and job office of Geo. H. Himes.

FISH PROPAGATION.—The directors of the Oregon and Washington Fish Propagating Company met at the Occident in Astoria on Thursday evening. Prof. Livingstone Stone was present and made a report. The site selected is the Umatilla river. A levy of 25 per cent. of the subscribed stock, was made, payable to the treasurer, for the purpose of beginning the work at once. We understand that Mr. Livingstone Stone, the United States Fish Commissioner, does not entirely give up the taking of salmon on the Upper Columbia, but will endeavor to secure some at the Umatilla. Not having been successful so far up there, he has deemed it best to take some at Cathlamet bay to be sure of at least two million young fishes from the spawn.

MAGNIFICENT STRAWBERRIES.—Mr. H. C. Conegys, our efficient agent at Kalama, sent to this office Saturday a small box containing the most magnificent specimens of strawberries we have ever seen. Some idea may be formed of the size of the berries, when a number of them measured five inches in circumference. "Fact, I assure you," as George Faucett Rowe would say in the play of "Brass, and no mistake, sir." The berries were raised on the farm of Mr. C. J. Lee, located near Kalama. The box with its contents was presented by an attache of the OREGONIAN to Senator O. P. Morton, with the compliments of this office.

THE INVESTIGATION.—All preliminaries having been arranged, the Congressional Committee will enter to-day upon the duty of investigating the charges preferred against Senator Grover. The committee will meet this morning at 9 o'clock in the building at the corner of Alder and Third streets. A room was engaged by the committee, and a number of [illegible] were engaged last Saturday in [illegible], up expressly for that purpose. A number of witnesses have been summoned to be in attendance and are already in the city. The investigation will be conducted publicly.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.—This well-known physician and lecturer has now established his permanent headquarters in this city since his return from Astoria. In about two weeks he proposes to make a short visit to Astoria. Dr. Brenan has been selected to deliver the oration at the celebration which will be held in East Portland park, Wednesday, and no doubt will acquit himself on that occasion with credit.

FINE FRUIT.—Mr. H. W. Prettyman, of the Railroad Nursery, near East Portland, gladdened editorial tum-tums Saturday by leaving at this office a box filled with the choicest fruit and berries, which for size and delicacy of flavor could not be surpassed. The varieties embraced Royal Ann cherries, White Grape currant, Cherry Currant and Red Warrington gooseberries.

SERENADED.—At the close of the performance Saturday evening at New Market Theater, Miss Katie Mayhew, the talented actress, who is to make her initial bow this evening before a Portland audience, was serenaded at the Clarendon hotel. Bray's band called at the hotel and rendered very sweetly several favorite airs.

NUMBER OF ARRESTS.—During the month just past, the police force have made 79 arrests, classified as follows: Drunk and disorderly, 54; violation of ordinance 1,465, 9; insane, 3; vagrancy, 2; obscene language, 2; hawking without a license, 1; escaped prisoner, 1; larceny, 5; carrying concealed weapons, 1; assault, 1.

COMMITTED.—On Saturday Sheriff Crossen of Wasco county returned from Salem, where he had been to place in the penitentiary the following convicts from his county: William Collins, sentenced for five years for assault with intent to kill; Charles Ross, three years for larceny; John Hughes, four years for perjury.

DONATED EIGHTY ACRES.—Capt. J. C. Ainsworth, president of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, has recently donated a tract of land containing 80 acres, which will be used by the Pierce County Industrial Association as a fair ground. This is certainly very generous on the part of Capt. Ainsworth.

ASSUMES CONTROL.—Hon. J. C. Cartwright, the recently appointed Collector of Internal Revenue for Oregon, has received his commission from Washington. To-day his predecessor, Judge O. N. Denny, will turn over all papers, etc., and Mr. Cartwright will assume the duties of that office.

CITY OF SALEM.—This steamer will leave her dock this morning bound for the upper Willamette. The steamer Ohio was advertised to leave but was unable to do so. The City of Salem will return in time for the various excursions to be made from the city on the Fourth.

I. O. R. M. ELECTION.—Friday evening a regular meeting of Oneonta Tribe Improved Order of Red Men was held, at which time the following officers were elected: E. Mendenhall, S.; H. Hyde, S. S.; Wm. Kribbs, J. S.; Le F. A. Shaw, Trustee.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The East Portland Social Club will hold a party at Odd Fellows' Hall to-morrow (Tuesday) evening. A pleasant time may be anticipated.

A grand reception and ball will be held by Rescue Engine Company No 2, of Astoria, at Jack's Theater on Tuesday evening, July 3d. Tickets, including supper, $2 50. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation and regret our inability to be present on what no doubt will prove a most enjoyable occasion.

THE RECEPTION.

This (Monday) evening, a grand reception will be held at Turn Halle by the officers and members of the Portland Board of Trade, tendered Senator O. P. Morton, Senator E Saulsbury and Senator S. J. R. McMillan and other members of the senatorial party. A large number of invitations have been distributed, and the affair gives assurance of proving one of the most memorable social events which has ever occurred in the history of Portland. The reception, we understand, will conclude with a ball and supper. No effort will be spared by the gentlemen who have charge of the affair to make it a credit both to the state and city.

BRIEF NOTES.

"Fanchon, The Cricket."

First appearance of Miss Katy Mayhew.

Day after to-morrow Young America will be in all his glory.

A good chance soon for the young folks to learn vocal music.

A correspondent writing from Washington county says: Heavy grain falling down under the recent rains. Farmers speak of having to use mowers to cut some of the present crop.

Arrangements have been made with the O. & C. R. R. to allow all parties desiring to attend the Fourth of July celebration at Hubbard to travel at half fare rates. A general invitation to all Portlanders.

WILLOW WIELDERS.

Saturday witnessed an exciting game of base ball between the Pedro base ball club of Mt. Tabor, and the Athletic club of this city. Some excellent playing was done by both sides. The score stood—Athletics, 29 to Pedros 11 runs. This makes the sixth victory for the Athletics this year, they not having lost a single game. An accident occurred in the third inning, which came near resulting seriously. Mr. George Parsons, the excellent left-fielder of the Athletics, was the unfortunate person. In attempting to run to the home base from the third, he slipped, and fell. As he did so, the ball, which was thrown very swift, struck him on the nose, and ruptured an artery, causing severe hemorrhage of that organ. The accident occasioned a great deal of excitement for a little while. However, another player was substituted, and the game went on as usual. The Athletics succeeded in "whitewashing" their opponents six times. The return game will take place in two weeks. P. M. Barker gave general satisfaction as umpire. The afternoon was all that could be desired, and quite a large crowd assembled on the grounds.

BOATING NOTES.

No races up for the Fourth.

A fine row-boat from abroad is up for raffle at the boat house.

Talk of a race at Albany on the Fourth—the new boat at Salem to enter.

LaChapelle is building a sail boat expressly for those who want to use one and don't know how. It is calculated to remain standing in the worst squall.

Bob Austin has accepted the challenge of P. Hatch, to row at Oregon City on the Fourth. The former will row in Boyd's boat and the latter in Leveridge's shell.

Harry Boyd has named his shell the Damoowdervitch. We hope he will find room enough to print the name on her, and that we will never have occasion to mention it again.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

The neatest thing in night lamps are those just received by Hodge, Snell & Co. We have seen the lamps and can certify to their value.

Everybody who wants to celebrate can do so now as Beck & Son have opened a large stock of fire-works, flags, etc., suitable for the day.

On July 5th Dayton & Hall open their new hardware store corner Taylor and First streets. They have a very large stock of hardware and invite those desiring in their line to call and examine the stock.

SOMETHING NEW.—An ingenious labor saving machine has been invented, with which a grocer can, by turning a crank cut a slice out of a cheese of any weight called for by his customers without using a scale at all. It must be a great convenience. They are manufactured by the same firm who make the patent syrup faucet, with which syrup can be measured by turning a crank instead of measuring with tin measures as of old. Northrup & Thompson who are arranging a large and complete stock of goods in the line, have the above articles, and are constantly receiving all the new and desirable varieties of hardware as fast as they are announced.

PICNICS.

Tickets for the steamboat excursion to the Cascades are now ready, and as the number to be sold is limited, the committee are desirous that as many as can do so secure their tickets in advance. They can be procured at J. K. Gill's book store, C. C. Morse's music store, and Parrish & Cornell's real estate office.

Modest Joseph informed a friend confidentially that he had warriors enough to lick all the soldiers in his vicinity, and, having spit on his hands, has started in to do it. Meanwhile the department at Washington has not decided definitely why there should be an outbreak at this time, and, until that question is satisfactorily settled, nothing will be done to assist the threatened points.—Chicago Tribune, June 22d.

"In choosing a wife," the Phrenological Journal says, "be governed by her chin." Many men are governed by their wife's "chin" after marriage, and they're generally the men who think "there is another and happier world."

John Cran & Co. have received ex Elder a large assortment of neck and sleeve ruchings, light, medium and dark kid gloves, bibs, etc.

Ladies desiring to obtain Madam Gillison's celebrated charts with full instructions in cutting dresses, polanais basques and all kinds of ladies and children's clothing, can do so by calling third door from Fourth on Yamhill.

WANTED.—A girl to take care of children. Inquire at southeast corner Washington and East Park street.

The Grover investigation will attract great attention this week—ditto Barnes' lunches.

Ladies, if you want a nice cashmere dress go to the Emporium of Fashion of J. Harris & Son.

New novelties in lace scarfs and bibs, ruching, embroideries, fans, beads, etc., at Mrs. Charles Tichner's, 126 First street.

Mrs. B. A. Owens, M.D., Office and residence, east side First street, between Yamhill and Taylor. Special attention given to Women and Children complaints. Also gives Medicated Vapor Baths, combined with Electricity, in treating Rheumatism and Chronic Diseases.

The Medical Institute of Dr. W. L. Adams, corner of First and Salmon streets, will be removed to Hood river in a few months. Till then chronic diseases of men and women will be treated in Portland as usual. An accomplished lady assistant to give baths to ladies and assist in their treatment always in the office.

"Are we Almost There"

Where? Why, Fishel & Roberts', where you get those stylish suits that are noted for wear and durability.

Ladies' linen suits sold cheaper at J. Harris & Son's Emporium of Fashion than in any store in the city.

The site of a picnic ground can always be discovered by the empty Noble flasks which are left on the ground, while their emptiness evidences the appreciation for Noble Whisky. Millard & Van Schuyver, sole agents, 39 Front st.

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MARKET THEATER.—Saturday afternoon this popular place of amusement was crowded to overflowing at the matinee performance, "Our Boarding House" and "The Big Bonanza" constituted the "bill of fare." Both plays ran smoothly, and afforded the large audience great pleasure. In the evening the dramatized version of Dicken's great story of "Oliver Twist" was rendered to a good audience. In the play Mr. James Herne appeared in his justly celebrated impersonation of the brutal ruffian "Bill Sykes." Unquestionably Mr. Herne in that character has no superior on the American stage, which, perhaps, is the highest compliment that can be bestowed. Throughout, the play is characterized by coarseness and brutality, and by his careful and faithful representation of the great author's conception, Mr. Herne made "Sykes" fearfully realistic. Especially so was the murder scene, which was painfully real, and must have sent a thrill of horror through the audience. We cannot refrain from bestowing a well deserved compliment on the acting of Mrs. Norton Bush. This lady assumed the very trying and difficult role of "Nancy Sykes," the paramour of Bill. She acquitted herself in a manner by no means discreditable to an actress who makes the part a specialty. During the course of the play in several of the more exciting scenes she displayed a measure of dramatic power and intensity quite surprising. In the climax preceding the murder scene she was remarkably good, and her efforts were rewarded by hearty and prolonged plaudits. Brown's "Fagan," the Jew, was one of the best representations of that character which we have seen in this city. The remainder of the cast was well represented, and the support prompt and efficient.

This evening the beautiful drama of "Fanchon, the Cricket," will be presented, with Miss Katie Mayhew in the title role, supported by the full strength of the legitimate company.

MISS KATY MAYHEW.—This talented little actress arrived on the last steamer from San Francisco under engagement to Manager Bert. This evening she will make her first bow before a Portland audience in her great specialty—"Fanchon"—in which impersonation the lady has won very favorable criticisms from both the eastern and California press. Miss Mayhew came out to San Francisco with Hooley's Comedy Company, since which time she has been playing before large audiences there, in the interior and in Nevada, with a degree of success which must be very flattering to the lady. The Call, in alluding to her impersonation of "Fanchon," says: "She has magnetism of youth and good looks, a temperament sufficiently spiced with the spirit of mischief to meet the requirements of the part." The Chronicle says: "The 'Fanchon' of Miss Mayhew was promptly recognized by those who saw it as a remarkably fine performance indicating in this young lady an amount of talent not brought out by any of her previous opportunities." The Indianapolis Independent says: "Nothing gives us more pleasure than to refer to the brilliant professional career of our city's most charming little actress Miss Mayhew, and to mention the fact of her recent grand complimentary benefit at the Opera House, Sacramento Cal., tendered by the Governor, state officers, members of the Senate and Assembly and by the most prominent and wealthy citizens of that city." Thursday evening Miss Mayhew will appear in the dramatized version of Bret Harte's charming story of "M'liss."

The Grant county Times gives an account of new gold mines having been discovered south of Canyon City that are very rich.

J. E. Fenton of Yamhill, has been appointed professor of mathematics at Monmouth college. He is a worthy and capable young man.

The new grade at Roberts' hill beyond Roseburg, will enable a team to haul as much over that formidable place as over any other part of the road.

Baker City has a company of town guards, R. C. George is captain, J. H. Parker first and A. A. Huston second lieutenant. Arms and ammunition have been sent to different places in Baker county.

It is said that Dr. McCauley, of Salem, who gave morphine to Miss Alice Townsend, with fatal consequences, has left for parts unknown. She died within three minutes after taking the prescription.

The Astorian: Rev. W. L. McEwan, who returned to Oregon by the City of Chester, this week, is the only clergyman in the Episcopal church who was born in Oregon. Mr. McEwan was born on Clatsop in the year 1851. He graduated last month at the Berkley Divinity school, in Middleton, Connecticut.

At Willow creek, Baker county, on the 23d of June, Mrs. Angeline Carlisle was killed instantly by the accidental discharge of a rifle while she was shifting some articles in a wagon, not noticing the gun. The ball entered the abdomen ranging upwards. She was 28 years of age and leaves five young children.

Baker [illegible]: The Chinese of this city are preparing for the Indian war. A gentleman informs us that he noticed a celestial fixing up his pistol last week and the following conversation took place: Gentleman—"What are you doing, John?" Celestial—"Heap fixee up my pistol. By-and by Injun come, he catchee Chinatown first; me allee same ready, killee him right away."

Dalles Mountaineer: We certainly hope that the extra session of Congress will provide for the completion of this railroad (Northern Pacific) from the Missouri river to the mouth of the Snake river, by appropriating the proceeds of the sales of land in odd sections thereto, and to advance to the company on account of such sales about $25,000 per mile. But never give any railroad company the control of any portion of the public domain again.

THE TERRITORIES.

The Weiser Indians are said to be much afraid of the Nez Perces, and have asked leave to go over to the Payette, which has been granted.

A Seattle paper complains because that town has to buy all its bread abroad. It says the country doesn't yet produce its own chicken feed, though there is much good land.

The company of volunteers on the Lower Weiser numbers 47 men. The captain is Thos. E. Galloway. Lafayette Lansdon is first and William Gilderoy second lieutenant. The Upper Weiser company number 53 men. Their captain is Francis Mickey.

The Mountaineer reports that the dead body of Mr. Koontz, a wealthy cattle raiser, was found a few days ago in the Yakima river, supposed to have been killed by the Indians, as his body was considerably mutilated and no trace of his horse could be found. He was returning from the Kittitass valley, and was seen the day before in good health.

The American People.

No people in the world suffer as much with Dyspepsia as Americans. Although years of experience in medicine had failed to accomplish a certain and sure remedy for this disease and its effects, such as Sour Stomach, Heart burn, Waterbrosh, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Liver Complaint, coming up of the food, low spirits, general debility, &c., yet since the introduction of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER we believe there is no case of Dyspepsia that cannot be immediately relieved. 30,000 dozen sold last year without one case of failure reported. Go to your Druggist and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Two doses will relieve you. Regular Size 75 cents. Agents, Crane & Brigham, Wholesale Druggists, San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The following sentence has been imposed in the case of Lieut. W. W. Fleming, of the 12th infantry, convicted of appropriating funds entrusted to him by prisoners:

"To be dismissed the service of the United States and confined at hard labor for three years, and to be further confined until he pays the United States fine of $1,000, provided that the whole period of confinement shall not exceed five years; also that the crime, his name and place of abode shall be published in the papers of the state from whence he came. Clearing House Banks.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The Bank of Nevada, Pacific Bank, Lazard Freres, Tallant & Co., and National Gold Bank and Trust Company, which have hitherto held aloof from the clearing house, have signified their intention of availing themselves of its workings on July 1st.

Political.

The executive committee of the Democratic state central committee met to-day to receive communications from the warring wings of the party in the city with a view of harmonizing the relations between the factions. Communications were received from the regular or Brady and Mannix wing, expressing their willingness to leave the matter to the arbitration of the central committee. The opposition, however, sent a communication declining to submit to any interference. The communications were referred to a general committee by the executive committee for action at a meeting called for July 5th.

The Republican county committee met this evening and resolved to hold primary July 2 st to elect 15 delegates from each senatorial district to act separately in making legislative nominations, and as a body and a municipal convention to determine the course to be pursued in relation to making up a municipal ticket. At the same primary also to be elected a legislative committee of five from each senatorial district who will also act as a county committee. The present county committee includes a number of federal office holders in the mint and custom house, and it was considered possible that a question might come up concerning them in connection with the recent order of the president forbidding office holders to take part in political conventions. No mention was made of the matter however by members of the federal brigade or any one else.

A Smuggling Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—Some weeks ago it will be remembered that the custom officers here seized a lot of liquors and cigars that had been landed from the school ship Jamestown on her return from Honolulu without paying duty. The matter was compromised by allowing the officials to whom the goods were consigned to pay a fine equivalent to the duty, and causing the goods to be reshipped to Honolulu on the Jamestown, there manifested and returned here paying regular duty. It is now reported that the goods are not on board the Jamestown, which is expected shortly to sail for Honolulu, and the custom officers are ignorant as to their whereabouts. It is also stated that the customs authorities at the time of the seizure of the above mentioned goods were in possession of information to the effect that the Jamestown had on board several thousand dollars worth of contraband goods. Being a U. S. ship she could not be boarded and the goods seized, but strict surveillance was maintained over her until she sailed for Vallejo for repairs. It is strongly suspected that while there these goods were smuggled ashore.

Mortuary Report.

Ninety-five deaths were recorded at the health office this week, a decrease of two from last week, and 51 less than in the corresponding week last year. One case of smallpox was verified during the week. The victim was a man living near the Presidio. He was sent to the 26th street hospital where he died. Mortality from diphtheria, 11.

Linderman's Commission.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—The commission to investigate Federal offices in this city organized last night, consists of Dr. Linderman, ex-Gov. Low, now President of the Anglo California bank, and Henry L. Dodge, merchant and member of the Republican State Central committee. The examination will commence forthwith with the mint.

NEVADA.

Bonanza Bullion.

VIRGINIA, June 30.—Four hundred thousand dollars of bonanza bullion was in the office here not shipped last evening. The bullion product so far is over $100,000 for each mine over that of the corresponding time last month.

VICTORIA, June 30.—The steamship Dakota sailed at noon to-day for San Francisco with a full passenger list, $33,000 in treasure, 641 bales wool, 3,451 water pipes, 1,433 bundles hoop poles, and a quantity of other freight.

The barkentine Mount Lebanon is under charter for Shanghae.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The English Franchise.

LONDON, June 29.—In the house of commons Mr. Trevelyn (liberal) moved that in the opinion of the house it is desirable to adopt a uniform franchise for borough and county constituencies, and so redistribute political power as to obtain more complete representation of the opinion of the electoral sufficient representation of large towns.

Smollet (liberal conservative) said the motion was brought forward as the foundation of a future electoral cry for the liberal party.

Sir Stafford Northcote and Mr. Goschen opposed, and the Marquis of Hartington strongly supported the motion. The house divided and the motion was rejected—276 to 220.

Copyright Laws.

LONDON, June 30.—The Athenæum says it is understood the copyright commission has adopted a series of resolutions as a basis of its report which will recommend very considerable changes in the law of copyrights.

Insurrection in Japan.

The Pall Mall Gazette says a telegram received from an official source to-day states the insurgents in Japan have been dispersed and a portion of them driven into the province of Buhgo. Tranquility is nearly restored.

Novel Exhibition.

LONDON, June 30.—The Caxton collection was opened to-day at Horticultural Gardens, Kensington, by Gladstone. It is one of the most unique exhibitions ever held in London. The collection of early printing is very remarkable, comprising the oldest existing English newspapers, some dating as far back as 1667, the wonderful Stevens collection of bibles and finest collection of music in the world. Among other works is a Charles I. copy of Shakespeare left by the queen. In the Caxton room are 190 volumes from Caxton's press, including Dictes and Sayings of the Philosophers, 1477. The first book issued from the Caxton press, also the Recuyll of the histories of Troy, 1474, the first book ever printed in England and bought in 1812 for five thousand dollars. The Emperor and Empress of Brazil were present.

Crop Reports.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—The department of agriculture reports crops in superior condition in New England. In most of the southern states, in those of the Missouri valley, and in Oregon, and in fair to high condition in all the remainder, except in California. The south is finding immunity from loss in their red rust proof oats. Indications are favorable for good barley, though a decrease of areas is reported in the western states. The condition is highest west of the Mississippi. There is an increase of clover, especially in the south, and it is very marked in Texas. Spring pasture has been abundant in northern New England, in west Vermont and in Oregon. It has been injured in southern New England and in the middle states prior to the recent rains, by dry weather. The drought has reduced the condition in portions of the south. The injury from this cause has been great in California. Pasture has been generally good in the territories. An investigation into losses of sheep during the past year, shows a total of near 1,000,000 of sheep and lambs destroyed by dogs, wolves and various diseases, and an aggregate money value of nearly $8,000,000. The average percentage of loss is nearly 13. The proportion is highest respectively in North Carolina, Florida and Louisiana and ranges from 17 per cent in the former state to 3 7 10 in Nebraska. The rate is highest in the south, and lowest in the states having dog laws.

Chicago Markets.

CHICAGO, June 30—The grain markets have been remarkable for dullness in the early part of the week and excitement and decline during the last two days. This is fine growing weather, and despite the reported ravages by storm, it is believed that the sun will soon dispel the fears of flood, rust and destruction which were for a few days entertained. Wheat has sold at from $1 31½@1 44½. The former price was reached to-day and the latter Monday. Receipts of wheat for the week, 390,000 bushels; shipments, 175,000 bushels. Receipts for the same time last year, 328,000; shipments, 132,000 bushels.

Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, June 30.—Wool in active demand; sales continue to be fairly large, all available lots commanding full prices. New fleeces are arriving freely, but there is not much of any assortment offering. Some 6,000,000 pounds new sold during the week at prices ranging from 42½@48c. Quotations for the most part are nominal; XX could not be purchased under 50@52½c; No. 1 and X, 45@47c; Michigan and Wisconsin ranged from 43@45c; combing and delaine in good demand; sales of 140,000 pounds at 60@65c, mostly 52½c. Texas in demand; sales of 273,000 pounds at 30a37c; pulled, firm and sold up close, sales 349,000 pounds at 35@50c, latter for very choice super; bulk of sales in range of 40a45c. TO DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—

For the past year and a half I have been suffering from Nervous and General Debility, Kidney Disease, Loss of Flesh and Strength, dizziness in the head and a constant pain through the back and loins. I became so debilitated and broken down that I was unfitted for business. I have been to Victoria and all over the coast under medical treatment for the past nine months, without receiving any benefit whatever, and had almost given up hopes of ever recovering, until I came under your treatment about seven weeks ago. From the very first your treatment seemed to work like a charm, and I constantly improved from the beginning. I have gained 14 pounds of flesh, and I am now, thanks to your skillful treatment, perfectly well and am able to return to my business on the Snohomish. JAMES KING.

Seattle, March 31, 1877.

To the People: I have been troubled with chronic Nasal Catarrh for years, the disease being so aggravated that there was constantly an effusion of matter passing down into my throat behind the pallate and down through my nostrils.

My nose became depressed between the eyes and swollen on each side. I was told by physicians that it was a polypus: that some of the blood vessels were involved and that the removal would endanger my life by hemorrhage. I became so bad that I made up my mind that I must have immediate relief or die.

As a last resort I applied to Dr. Paul M. Brenan, who, after a moment's examination, determined what to do. He said the nasal bone was involved and diseased, and that there would have to be a portion of it removed. He at once removed the bone tumor containing the ulcer, also the diseased portion of bone and patucatory gland and cured the catarrh. I am now perfectly well and as free from disease as ever I was in my life. THOMAS D. MURPHY.

Seattle, April 5th, 1877.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN—Dear Sir: I take great pleasure in stating for the benefit of those who are afflicted with any chronic disease, that I am now a well man. For the past two years I have been under the medical treatment of different physicians, from which I have received no benefit. I have been suffering with general and nervous debility, a difficulty in my stomach, and at times dizziness and severe headache, almost incapacitating me for work. About three weeks ago I put myself under your care, and I can say with delight that I am cured and feel like myself again, after having partaken of your skillful treatment. To me now, labor seems a pleasure. I say this much, hoping it will be the means of attracting the suffering to you who can relieve and cure them.

Your's Truly, JOHN BALLARD,
Employed at Colman's Saw Mill, Seattle.

[I will not publish any cures performed by me unless by the full consent of the parties.]
PAUL M. BRENAN.

Dr. Brenan can be consulted, free of charge, at his office at the Clarendon Hotel, from 10 to 12 A. M., and at rooms 6 and 7 in Corbett's Block, corner of Front and Washington streets, Portland, Oregon, from 1:30 to 5, and 7 to 8 P. M.
